

NEWS FROM DALLAS

Everything is in readiness for the lawn fete and bazaar to be given on the night of June 25th, by the Ladies of Shaareth Israel Congregation, on Mrs. Kleinman's lawn, at 1822 Sanger avenue.

The various booths are in charge of the following ladies, each of whom has twenty ladies assisting her.

Mrs. Jake Yonack, home made cakes and pastries.

Mrs. Will Garonzik, candies.

Mrs. A. Hayman, soda water.

Mrs. M. Silberman, cigars.

Mrs. L. Michaelson, flowers and pot plants.

Mrs. L. Kleinman, ice cream.

Mrs. Philip Garonzik, fishing pond.

Mrs. L. B. Sachs and Mrs. J. Rosenberg, fancy work and miscellaneous.

These ladies have worked hard and long for the past several weeks and success should crown their efforts.

The admission tickets bear numbers entitling the holder to a chance at a handsome prize. A musical program and a dozen other novel attractions await the guests, so don't forget the time—the night of June 25, and the place—1822 Sanger avenue.

All proceeds will be used to furnish the handsome new Synagogue which is now in course of construction.

The Brandeis Club entertained with an apron and veranda dance last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Sadie Hayman, 2817 South Boulevard. The guests all came on a large truck. A 3-piece orchestra furnished music for the dancing and dainty programs marked ten dances and a ladies favor which was a moonlight waltz. Between the dances games were played and Miss Florence Lipman being the lucky winner, each time, she was awarded a pair of silk socks and a kewpie doll. Punch was served throughout the evening. Picnic lunches were auctioned off to the highest bidder and they were eaten on the trucks while the guests were driven all over town. Fifteen couples enjoyed that delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Meyers spent Sunday in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Sophie Goetz and daughter, Mrs. Sam Davidson, were guests in this city last week.

Miss Adele Miller and mother, Mrs. M. D. Miller left Sunday for a several weeks' stay in New York.

Miss Halsmark of Kansas City, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Jaffa, has been spending a few days with the Israelsky family.

Mrs. Bertha Rosenfield and daughter, Ruby, left Sunday for California, to be gone several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Grossman have gone to California to be gone all summer.

Mr. Leon Block leaves this week to be gone for several months, spending the vacation period on the St. Lawrence on a launch fishing.

Mr. Isaac Shayn has gone to New Orleans to visit his sister, Mrs. Sidney Blumenthal.

Miss Corinne Cerf of Ennis was the guest of the Mallison family this week.

Columbian Club Picnic.

On Tuesday night the Columbian Club gave its annual picnic for the benefit of its members and their families. Kidd Springs was the place chosen for the evening, the whole resort, including the dancing pavilion, was rented by the Club. A most delicious lunch was spread by Mr. Elam, which was enjoyed by the entire ensemble. Dancing, boating, and swimming were the entertainments for the evening, and every one was sorry when the time came to go home.

Mr. Gus Hirsch has gone on a fishing trip in the Panhandle to be gone several days.

Mrs. Robert Weil of Bowie, Texas, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. I. E. Rose on South Boulevard.

Mrs. Lionel Brown and daughter, Brightie, have returned to their home in St. Louis, after a most enjoyable visit to friends and relatives in Dallas.
